HONORS, AWARDS, & COACHING HISTORY

3 JAKE BURROWS (1936-40)

● Col. Burrows is the lone member of the college's Hall of Fame who was both Regimental Commander and First Honor Graduate of his class.

● As an athlete in which he competed for three years as freshmen were ineligible, Col. Burrows earned eight total letters during his Citadel athletic career as he lettered in football three times, basketball three times and twice in track.

● He was an all-St. selection in basketball three times and twice was named All-Southern Conference, and during his three years of basketball, Col. Burrows averaged 11.5 points per game which equated to 31 percent of the team's total points. In his three years on the hardwood, The Citadel defeated South Carolina and Furman six straight games each.

● He was the Regimental Commander for the 1939-40 academic year in which he also served as the basketball team captain. Col. Burrows was the first cadet to graduate in the new "Armory," which opened that year.

● In 1980, he was enshrined into The Citadel Athletic Hall of Fame.

● Banner was raised in McAlister Field House rafters on Jan. 28, 2012.

22 PAT CONROY (1964-67)

● Perhaps the most famous of all Citadel graduates, Pat Conroy '67, was the 1966-67 basketball team's most valuable player who passed away from pancreatic cancer on March 4, 2106.

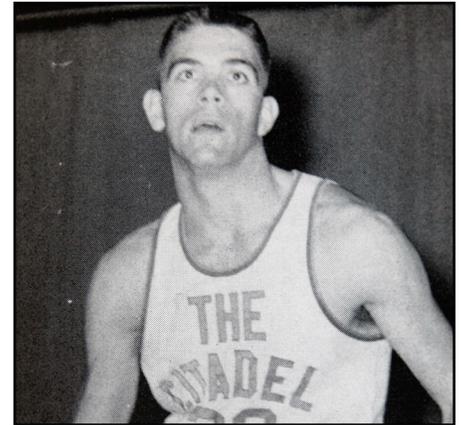

● The famed author is well-known for his books based in South Carolina's Lowcountry and includes bestsellers The Prince of Tides, Beach Music and South of Broad, among others, yet he ventured out and penned My Losing Season in 2002, which became a popular book nationally among athletes, coaches and sports fans.

● He was recognized with an honorary degree from The Citadel in 2010 and was enshrined in the college's Athletic Hall of Fame in 2014.

● The Citadel hung a banner in his honor and memory during a halftime ceremony on February 3, 2018 with family, teammates and fans among those in attendance.

● Conroy was a member of the Mel Thompson-coached basketball teams from 1965-67 and was voted the team most valuable player his senior year when he averaged 11.8 points per game.

● Played in 56 games over three seasons, hitting 154 field goals and knocking down 144-of-207 (.696) at the charity stripe.

33 ART MUSSELMAN (1957-60)

● Played from 1956-1960 under the direction of Head Coach Norm Sloan.

● Amassed a 57-38 (.600) record during his career in a Bulldog uniform.

● Currently ranks third on the Bulldogs' all-time leading scoring list with 1,506 points.

● Eclipsed the double-digit plateau on 74 different occasions during the course of his career, scoring 20 points or more in 28 of those contests.

● Notched a career-high 36 points, including 13 field goals, in a 93-88 victory against Furman (Feb. 26, 1959).

● Managed four different eight-game streaks of double-digit scoring during the course of his career. The longest occurred Dec. 6 to Feb. 6 in the 1958-59 campaign in which he reached double figures in 12 straight contests.

● Accrued three straight winning seasons during the course of his career, finishing with a record of 16-11 (57-58), 15-5 (58-59) and 15-8 (59-60).

● His 587 career field goals place him second on the Bulldogs' all-time list.

● Topped the team with the best field goal percentage on three different occasions during his career (56-57, 58-59, 59-60).

● Banner was raised to McAlister Field House rafters on Jan. 31, 2009.
